Summer Warrior Camp is a fun filled event in which students and guests will enjoy four days of supervised activity. This event is separate from regular class; however, both students and their guests will be participating in martial arts training sessions, games, and outdoor activities taught by qualified instructors and assistant instructors. As with all activity, there is a risk of accidental injury, by signing this permission slip you are aware and recognizing the possible risk of injury and release Kuk Sool Won™, Kuk Sool Won of The Woodlands, and all of its personnel from any and all liability.
